

free financial health assessment

April is National Financial Literacy Month, which provides a great opportunity to check on your financial situation and promote your skills.

This is a perfect time to reach out to your Housing Counselor for a free financial health assessment and credit report.

Tacoma/Pierce County Habitat for Humanity's Housing Counselors can also help you on your journey to homeownership, providing assistance with:

- completing a household budget
- calculating debt to income ratios and housing affordability
- identifying opportunities to build savings
- creating an action plan to overcome financial obstacles to homeownership

Begin a journey to financial health today by scanning the code below and completing a brief intake form. One of our housing counselors will be in touch soon to set your first meeting.
