

● Washington Fatherhood Council

● 5th Annual Fatherhood Summit

● Co-parenting, the hardest job
we'll ever do

May 16-18, 2023

Join 8:30 a.m. to noon for three half-days focused upon how we can all work together to support effective co-parenting, fathers, children, and families.

Keynote Speaker – Jerry Tello

Interconnected Relation-Ships: Figuring Out How to Flow So No One Drowns

Jerry Tello is an internationally recognized authority in family strengthening, therapeutic healing, cross-cultural issues, and motivational speaking. He will explore the important work we all have to do to address past trauma and focus on present-day healing in order to break cycles of pain and build circles of health and well-being for children.

2 Additional Daily Sessions & Lounge Connection Sessions

Prosecuting Attorney Panel: Understanding the Evolving Role of Prosecuting Attorneys in Family Court – Four Prosecutors share their insights.

Co-Parenting Panel: Co-Parenting with Integrity – Fathers and mothers share how they have overcome barriers and developed successful co-parenting relationships to focus on what is best for their children.

David Moore, PHD: Better than Expected: Lessons Learned from Young Fathers' Journey to Parenthood.

Starting Dads Off on the Right Foot: Supporting the Inclusion of Fathers Before and After Birth in Healthcare – A Pediatrician, Dad Doula and WIC perspective

The Culture of Fatherhood: Relationships, Rituals, and the Return on Investments.

Click Here to Register for this Free Virtual Event

Brought to you by:

